An Operator Burned.

Last night as electric car Queen was going over the steel bridge to the Island the box burned out with a big flash. Operator Jesse Barker's face was badly burned and his moustache scorched off. Conductor Will Liston relieved him and ran the car in.

A Successful Experiment.

The Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad company's Sunday excursions to Lake Chippewa were inaugurated yesterday. Fifty tickets were sold at Bridgeport alone, and when the train passed Uhrichsville it was crowded. The series will evidently be a great success.

Confirmation at the Cathedral.

Yesterday a class of 135 or 140 was confirmed at St. Joseph's Cathedral. The Bishop was assisted in the solemn services by Rev. Monsignor Sullivan, Rev. Father Parke, Rev. Father McElligott and Rev. Father Reynolds. It was an unusually large class, and the services were necessarily very protracted.

Marshall County Republicans.

Captain Dovenor addressed the Republicans at Pleasant Valley, Marshall county, Saturday night. A large crowd turned out to hear the address and the meeting was a very enthusiastic one, showing that the Republicans of that section are earnest in the fight. Candidates Jones, Davis, Roseberry, Kemple and Harris also made short addresses, as did also Chairman Mathews, of the county committee. The club starts off with a membership of twenty-five.

A Financial Transaction.

Mr. William Tedrow, of Aleppo township, Greene county, Pa., and Mrs. Mary A. Schoenfeld, of this city were united in marriage by Rev. Dr. Cooke Saturday at the office of Justice George Arkle. Before the ceremony, Mr. Tedrow signed an agreement giving his wife, if she survive him, one-third of his home farm of seventy-two acres, and one-third of whatever property they may accumulate during their married life. Another agreement directing the heirs of Mr. Tedrow to pay his wife, if she survive him, $72 annually, to be contributed by them jointly, was not signed. Mr. Tedrow is 68, and his wife 58.

Death of "Joe" Hess.

The many friends of Mr. Joseph Hess, the son of Mr. Christian Hess, of this city, will regret to hear of his death, at Omaha, Nebraska, yesterday morning. Mr. Hess had many warm friends here who will be pained to hear of his demise. The family received a telegram Saturday evening telling of his serious illness, and Mr. J. Adam Hess, his brother, had made arrangements to go to his bedside, leaving at 10:35 last night. Mr. Hess did leave at the time stated, but instead of being able to assuage his brother's pains will perform the sad duty of bringing home his corpse.

Transfer Recorded.

The following transfers of real estate were left for record at Clerk Hook's office on Saturday:

Deed made June 3, 1892, by John L. Giesy and wife to Valentine Frobert for the south half of lot No. 8, in Filan, White and Gallaher's addition, on the east side of Jacob street. Consideration, $325.

Deed made June 3, 1892, by John McLure and wife to G. O. Smith for lot No. 37, in Russell and Hubbard's addition, on the Island. Consideration, $1,050.

Deed made June 3, 1892, by G. O. Smith and wife to M. R. Wolf, for the same piece of ground. Consideration, $1,100.

Hellmeier's Dyeing Establishment.
John Hellmeier, proprietor of the Pan Handle Dyeing Establishment, No. 1431 Market street, respectfully announces that he is prepared to do cleaning, dyeing and repairing, and in fact he guarantees to make your last year's clothes look as good as new on short notice. Give him a call.

Are you troubled with corns or bunions? If so, let us give you a little advice. Pare them down as closely as possible without drawing blood; then soak them in warm water to soften them, and apply Chamberlain's Pain Balm twice daily, rubbing them vigorously for a few minutes at each application. A corn plaster should be worn for a few days to protect them from the shoe. As a general liniment for sprains, bruises, lame back or rheumatism, Pain Balm is all that can be desired. 50 cent bottles for sale by druggists. DAW

THE TICKET COMPLETE.

The Democrats Nominate their Legislative Candidates,

AND THE SENATORIAL CONFEREES

And new County Committee are Named—Messrs. Brockunier, O'Kane, Dobler and Wilson Draw the Prices—U. S. Senators Endorsed. Not much interest in the Proceedings.

R. S. Kincheloe presided over the Ohio county Democratic convention Saturday afternoon and Dr. E. C. Myer acted as secretary. The gentlemen named to the convention as suitable nominees for the house of delegates were P. F. Farrell, J. B. Wilson, Roman Dobler, C. F. Brandfass, who declined; William C. Handlan, who also declined; Robert Pekari, whose name was withdrawn; Mayor Seabright, who withdrew in favor of C. F. Brandfass; Col. Robert White; C. S. Terrill, afterwards withdrawn; Andrew Patterson, Guy R. C. Allen, P. Kennedy, Robert Simpson, Frank Gruse and F. C. Cox. Messrs. Gruse and Patterson declined. The vote resulted:

Brockunier.....	3,704
Wilson.....	4,330
O'Kane.....	3,360
Dobler.....	2,762
Farrell.....	1,763
Cox.....	1,775
White.....	1,732
Allen.....	1,158
Simpson.....	236

Messrs. Brockunier, Wilson, O'Kane and Dobler were declared elected. The announcement of the result was greeted with loud applause. A motion to make the nominations unanimous was carried without a dissenting voice.

Nominations for senatorial conferees were then declared in order. Following was the result:

Washington—Michael Stein.
Madison—J. B. Somerville.
Day—Frank P. Jepson.
Union—V. Moelan.
Centre—C. W. Seabright.
Webster—John H. Whyte.
Richie—Charles Horstman.
Triadelphia—M. V. Hogg.
Liberty—A. M. Ridgely.
Richland—J. W. Nicholls.

The next thing in order was the selection of a new Democratic county executive committee. Each district delegation selected its representative upon the committee. The new executive committee is as follows:

Washington—First ward—George Rqdenbaugh.
Fulton—Henry Stein.
Madison—R. S. Kincheloe.
Day—Henry Robrecht.
Union—J. Wilson White.
Centre—A. C. Stoetzer.
Webster—John Lane.
Richie—T. J. Wolington.
Triadelphia—Michael Madden.
Liberty—J. M. Halston and F. C. Cox.
Richland—A. P. Garden.

The following was adopted and the convention adjourned:

Resolved, That the distinguished services of Hon. John E. Kenna and Hon. Chas. J. Faulkner, exerted especially in defeating the force bill, entitle them to the gratitude of the Democratic party of the country, and this convention endorses their actions in the senate of the United States generally.

A TOWBOAT UPSET.

The Hunter No. 2, Pushing an Excursion Barge, is Wrecked.

Saturday the towboat Hunter No. 2, towing the excursion barge City of Pittsburgh, with over 500 excursionists from Steubenville aboard, came down and went on to Moundsville. The excursion was under the auspices of the Acme glass workers, and was originally intended to be run yesterday, but Rev. Dean Hartnedy and others of Steubenville denounced this desecration of the Sabbath, and the day was changed to Saturday. The excursion passed up about 4:40, touching at the wharf. Two or three passengers were left, and they ran up the Peewick railroad track and waved for the boat, which put in just below Ninth street to take them on.

There is at that point a line of heavy piles for ice breakers. The barge passed over them safely, but the Hunter struck one, knocking a hole in her hull. She filled rapidly, sank and careened toward the Island, and finally turned clear over and lay with part of her bottom above water.

Only the crew was on the boat, and they all escaped, though the engineer had to swim ashore. The cook, Mrs. Mollie Bruce, had a narrow escape. Fortunately the cables by which the barge and boat were bound parted, or the barge would also have upset.

A panic prevailed on the boat for awhile, but a gang plank was run ashore and those who desired to land did so. Most of them went home by train.

The pilot and another man had a fight on the deck of the barge about one of the lines, but they were quickly separated.

A report rapidly spread that the barge had upset, and it caused great excitement, till it was found to be untrue. An immense crowd gathered on the river bank at the scene of the wreck.

Some of the passengers boarded the H. K. Bedford and went home. The barge was towed up the river by the R. E. Phillips in the evening.

To Cleanse the System

Effectually yet gently, when costive or bilious, or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers, use Syrup of Figs.
